RETURNED TO LIFE. The days of miracles are not passed, according to those familiar with the death and return to life of Ulysses S. Roberts, a cigar maker and musician, of Harris-burg, Ill. He had been afflicted with burg, Ill. He had been affilicted with consumption for nearly a year. Two weeks ago his condition became worse, and a few days later he called his wife and two children to his bedside, and, kissing them good-bye, told them of the fast-approaching end. In the presence of the family, his pastor, Rev. A. S. Maxey, of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, of Harrisburg; Attorney R. S. Church, of Harrisburg; Attorney R. S. Marsh, his family physician and a num-ber of relatives, he died. An undertaker was called. Twelve hours had elapsed was called. Twelve hours had easyseen since the spirit had left the body, when suddenly the figure lying on the cot smiled and opened its eves. Mr. Roberts then spoke and asked them how long he had been gone, and, when told, he said:

"That's strange; it seems to me I have heen gone 1000 years. I have been in heaven and I have been happy." He told of his meeting his father, who had long preceded him, and other relatives and friends. Many questions were asked by the pastor, Rev. A. S. Maxey, concerning heaven and, the description given by him was wonderful. "But," said he, "I have just seven days to remain on earth when I will leave you until we meet up yonder." When asked by Rev. Maxey as to how Jesus appeared he said he was most always happy except at times when he beheld this earth steeped in sin." Roberts expressed a desire to return to heaven, and, true to his prediction, on the seventh day, and at the very hour named he again died.
